The Class of 1958

presents

The Meta

Peabody High School

Peabody, Massachusetts

Cover by

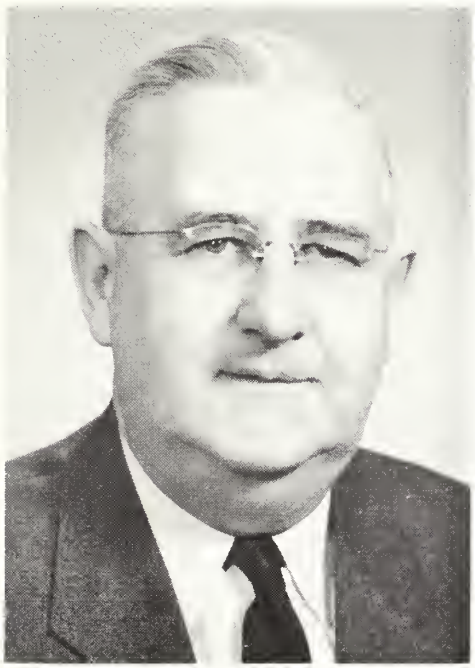
John Yaskell, Jr., '58

FOREWORD

With this publication we, as seniors, pass from the avenues of youth and high school into the great boulevard of the future. Wherever we emerge, be it at college, in the service of our country, at homemaking, or in the business world, we shall have the grateful realization of the perseverance, sacrifice, and patience that our parents, teachers, and friends have had to exert in preparing us for our respective roads to success.

Because the paths of even the closest of high school friends may be divergent, it is the purpose of this Meta to compile a record of our many high school group activities, through which we may in later years recapture the pleasure of our enjoyable moments as a group, relive old friendships, and note with pride all that we achieved as a class during four years of effort and study. May this Meta be a treasure chest of cherished memories of enjoyable days at Peabody High School.

DEDICATION



MR. HENRY SULLIVAN

THE class of 1958 proudly dedicates its year book to Mr. Henry A. Sullivan. This dedication is a recognition of his untiring efforts as teacher and Head of the Science Department. It is an earnest appreciation of his friendly and helpful relationship with those of us who were so fortunate as to enjoy his instruction. It is with a conscious realization, that the principles and teachings of this outstanding teacher, counselor, and friend have left on us an indelible impression of immeasurable value in the scientific world which we are to enter, that 1958 honors Mr. Sullivan with this Meta dedication.

Now that graduation time is drawing near, we begin to think of all the fun we've had during our four years at Peabody High. Many of us have had most of our fun during our senior year, and this can easily be understood by reviewing a typical day in 101.

As we first look in upon 101, we see JOHN BRYANT greeting everyone with a pleasant smile and a cheerful "Good Morning".

There is always a group around JUDY CLARKE'S desk in the morning. It seems CAROL GLEBUS, JANET ANDERSON, EDDIE CALLAHAN, and BILLY CHAMPAGNE are consulting one another about their physics homework. But, needless to say, when HERSCHEL CLOPPER arrives they have nothing to worry about as he always does his homework the right way. After Herschel gets the group cleared up, JOYCE CHERWEK rushes to Judy's desk to ask her opinion about something she has written for the Observer.

EDDIE BELL is running in circles trying to find some news for his paper. Finally, he has cornered KENNY BLAKE, the co-captain of the football team, for some information about the team. After getting Kenny's story, he decided to write a spectacular about PAULINE APOSTOLOPOULOS' trip from Greece before she came to join us, and CLAUDETTE ARCHAMBAULT'S trip to the British Isles.

ANITA DANIELS loves to have parties, so she is helping ELAINE DOWDELL plan a wedding shower for GEORGIA GEORGE. They have definitely decided to invite ANNA BEZZATI, ELAINE CALLOR, and SUSAN FOLSOM. They had to stop planning the shower because Georgia was coming and they want it to be a complete surprise.

CLAIRE FARLEY, BILL COHEN and RICHARD GATES are having an argument over last night's English assignment. They all read something different and Claire insists that she's right. They checked with Mr. Donahue and found that they were all wrong.

BOB CODY was trying to get his homework done when JANET CALEY insisted on talking to him, but getting no co-operation from him, she turned to ANDREA BRAY who seemed quite willing to listen as long as Janet wanted to talk.

LENNIE CAIRES who has just pulled up the shade, has discovered that the window is broken, and RICHARD BAKULA has already run to get the janitor. When the janitor arrived on the scene, he appointed JOHN CIMAN, FRANCIS and JAMES DINEEN to fix it, under the capable supervision of GEORGE DASSUK.

Miss Coyle is having trouble taking the attendance again. It seems that she has marked BARBARA EDDY absent because she wasn't sitting in her own seat. BRENDA GOULD and CARO GRINDROD have just missed being marked late.

Both were here on time but, Brenda was talking in the corridor and Caro was visiting one of her friends in another homeroom. Next time they'll be marked late.

JOYCE CARROLL is asking Miss Coyle to hurry with the attendance slip because EVA BROUGHTON, DOTTIE COMORA and she are late as it is, and they'll never get through collecting the slips at this rate.

The boys have finally arrived. Here they come at last: ROBERT DILORENZO, ROBERT BOVIO, JOHN ARATHUZIK, and DONALD CORMIER are late again, but, Bob is trying to convince Miss Coyle that the clock is wrong. Too bad Bob, your excuse may work—another day.

ROGER COMEAU, the President of our class, is at the head of the room, reading a special bulletin to us. Someone has parked his car in the driveway. It turned out to be PHIL DORINGER'S car, so he left to move it.

SUZANNE GAY who loves to draw pictures of people is now drawing a picture of MARGIE DONOVAN who is very anxious to see how it is coming along.

When the filing bell rings, we all go on our separate ways and then return again after sixth period. Miss Coyle has put our two janitors, EDDIE FRANKEL and RONNIE ENOS to work sweeping the floor and she is presently looking around to find TOMMY GAGNON, but it seems he sneaked out again.

As the doors of homeroom 101 close, we have looked in upon a typical day which one would experience if he were in 101.

With graduation drawing near our most prominent thoughts are of the future. Many of us are planning careers in medicine, teaching, engineering, and business. With the opening of the new North Shore Shopping Center many fellow classmates have already found jobs in various capacities. In fact so many students in homeroom 102 are engaged in storework we can almost picture a typical store: owned, managed, and staffed by ourselves.

It's the 4th of September, and the store's grand opening. Here to greet each prospective customer are the owners, NICK MAISTRELLIS and STERLING KRACZYNSKI, and the manager, MIKE KARAMAS. The Queen of our Junior Prom and Christmas Ball, CAROLE KNOWLTON, is at the door passing out roses to each lady visitor. The first to pass through the portals are BRENDA HUDSON, HELEN JERMYN and MARIE McLEAN eager to survey the stores merchandise.

Here comes ANN MURRAY, our fashion coordinator, and she seems to be having trouble with two of our stores best (?) stockboys, CARL GOODRIDGE and PAUL McNAIR. It seems one of them dropped a box on MARGIE KILEY'S foot while she was buying some cosmetics from our own beauty expert, SOPHIE KOKOREAS. The Dept. Mgr., DEANNA LERNER, is talking to the boys and it would appear the two young ladies have the situation under control.

On the second floor, the ladies are beginning to crowd around a display counter and it's easy to see why, for CAROL MORICO is demonstrating a new hair spray which guarantees to spray permanent color into your hair. It looks as if LEE MACINTYRE is her first customer.

Over in the book department THERESA MOISE and SANDRA HUTCHINS find selling isn't quite as they had anticipated. SANDRA seems to be having trouble finding a book on skiing for JOHN KALINUK and finally called the Dept. Mgr., JULIE MOORE. DON "JOSH" JELLY is busy autographing copies of his latest book, ICE KING, for two old friends, KATHY McCARTHY and HENRY NEWHALL, who himself is an outstanding hockey player.

In the sporting goods section PAUL "BUTCH" GALARIS, P.H.S. basketball ace, is busy selling RICHARD KULAK a new hockey stick. It seems he broke his other one in a recent attempt to prove the West Peabody team is better than the South Peabody team, captained by KEN HOSKER.

ROBERT IRWIN, CLEMENT JULIEN and JOHN McCARTHY came in to see our armed services display which is being demonstrated by RONALD MARRON.

In still another section of the store BRENDA GRAFFAM is having trouble picking out a birthday present for that certain someone in her life but with the help of salesgirl, FRANCES GUZOWSKI, she finally made her selection and took it to the gift wrapping desk where she was surprised to find CAROL LeBLANC struggling to free her finger from the bow she had just tied.

Outside, BILL KATSAPETSES had a near fatal accident when JUDY HITCHCOCK and RICHIE MEDINA ran him down on their bikes.

Inside the store there is excitement too, for two celebrities, RALPH JENKINS and BOB MANSFIELD have just arrived and have agreed to give us a few musical renditions, most of which they have recently recorded. These boys are sure to be a success with talent like theirs. The lively tones are filling the store and everyone is hurrying to get a closer look. JOE MICHAUD and DANA ISBELL are so excited they start to leave their elevator posts only to run smack into MARYANN McCARTY, personnel manager and her able assistant, GLORIA JEAN. The only thing they said to the boys, however, was, "Hurry up, we don't want to miss anything either."

Things finally calmed down and JEAN MORSE announced that it was closing time.

Outside head maintenance man, FRANCIS KOSLOUSKI, is about to lock the door when MARIE KOKORAS, JOAN JOHNSON, BEVERLY LeBREUX and JOANNE MOSSE, each laden with bundles come running out of the store and bump into him. By the looks of the scattered parcels FRANCIS will be a little late getting home this evening.

This about brings an end to our imaginary future, from now on we must realistically face what lies ahead. We wish for everyone in the senior class, especially those in Homeroom 102, the best that life has to offer. With God's help and a little hard work all our dreams can become realities.

SEE YOU AT OUR REUNION

LUNCH TIME

The day of graduation for the class of 1958 draws near. We have spent many happy days here, and as we approach the end of our school years we think of all the happy experiences we have shared.

It is an ordinary day at Peabody High School.

As we enter our homeroom we notice that MICHAEL ORDMAN hasn't forgotten to write the number of days remaining in the school year on the blackboard.

An early arrival is BEVERLY RANKIN, one of the nicest girls in our room. She spends those extra minutes, combing her hair, getting her books ready, etc. preparing for the day.

Here is JOYCE QUINLAN now. She probably came in her car. I am sure none of us will ever forget the day she came in the homeroom and said, "I just banged my car against a post! The crome is off and there is a dent in it! Oh! WHAT will my father say!!

There's PHILIP PIERCE, but he isn't carrying his towel. What happened, Phil? No football or hockey practice today??

DIANE PAPPAS has just come in looking very cold. She must have walked to school and will probably be complaining about not being able to type first period.

Oh, dear, there goes JOHN STAVROPOULOS in his debate with our favorite homeroom teacher, MISS CARROLL. Everyone in the homeroom really enjoys listening to them. Speaking of debates —it seems every Friday afternoon when the girls, ROSALIE PSZENNY and CAROLYN NEWHALL, naming a few of our best singers, leave for Glee Club practice, CHARLIE PAPUCHIS, ARTHUR PICKMAN, and WILLIAM OBER engage themselves for the whole period in a lively, but "friendly" argument.

We rarely find BARBARA PERLEY in our homeroom as she is always busy with the many activities she has as Vice-President of our senior class.

SELMA NELSON is very often found talking about her favorite sports. It seem she like sports so much that she would rather watch a basketball or hockey game rather than do her homework. Right SELMA?

Here comes MARY ANN NALLY. As usual she sits at her desk and opens her book to catch up on some homework, but just as she does her friends from neighboring homerooms come in and as usual, start talking to her, preventing her from accomplishing what she intended.

We'll never forget the time SANDRA O'BRIEN had some filing to do. She was so confused with all those letters and cards, but she finally did manage to straighten it out.

Speaking of times we will never forget—the day JAMES ROCHE came in with a conventional haircut—or the time MARYELLEN SHAMAS came in with her sacque dress—the first one to do so in our homeroom.

As a rule everyone arrives on time except for MICHAEL SHESTOPAL who comes in late once in a while or just about makes it before the bell. We wonder what keeps him so long???

The quiet boy in our homeroom is JAMES RENNICK who probably is dreaming of his favorite girl or car.

Just think, we have to stay in school until 1:20, but SALLY RACKAUSKAS, HARRY SHAMBOS and JOHN RUSSELL can leave at 11:45 because they take the Distributive Education course. Lucky kids!!

During the day we will usually find DONNA RAFFERTY and PRISCILLA NOLAN together in all their classes—they are even taking the driving course together on Wednesday.

Mentioning driving, we want to congratulate ROBERT SMITH for getting his license recently, and to advise him not to drive like JOSEPH PULEO as he speeds up and down the highways, until he has had more practice.

SANDRA PUTNAM with roving eyes for boys and RICHARD (SKIPPY) SNOW with roving eyes for girls have probably spent the day doing just that!

After school CONSTANCE PECHINSKY who is usually early enough in the morning, always manages to be the last one in the homeroom after school.

Just as CONNIE is the last one, PRISCILLA PATENAUDE is the first one in the homeroom and the first one to leave. She hurries to work as a doctor's secretary. She must have learned many remedies by now, so here is our chance for some free advice.

The other day just before leaving the school we looked out the window and saw GARY RODRIQUES running around the track. He looked good—until he tripped and fell. Oh well, that's the way the banana peels.

After school we can usually find LANCE RASMUSSEN in the typing room picking away at the keys for his best and only typing teacher MISS LUZ. We can find conscientious(?) ANGIE PAPPAS staying after school for MISS CODY without the slightest bit of regret. Am I right ANGIE?

Finally we can be pretty sure that we will find JOHN QUIRK trying to attain his highest ambition, to be the best plumber this side of Massachusetts.

Four exciting years at P.H.S. have come to an end—Many wonderful memories have been viewed by us in Homeroom 103. Let's hope our friendships don't cease after we pass through these portals.

MISCELLANY

Onee again the school bell rang, and we, now the mighty Seniors, assumed full reign over the lowly underclassmen. Though as mighty as we were, the Juniors gained the upper hand by having us evicted from the "brightest room", 105, into our second and final homeroom for the year, 104, whose biggest asset was Mr. Greehy.

It seemed to have slipped the mind of our "eager beaver" RUSS WARING who failed to make an appearance during the day. His memory hasn't improved much since his school days are still few and far between. Two other advocates of the four day school week are RICHARD WILSON and AL TERRIO who seem to think the week-end begins on Friday. Without these three, life in 104 would not have been as lively as it was.

As we gazed around at our classmates, we noticed two new faees in the group. It didn't take us long to find out that their names were PHYLLIS WILLINS and BARBARA VENEDAM and they were welcomed into "the gang."

The portals of 104 seemed to get smaller as the year passed because it soon served as the favorite leaning post for JOAN TAGLIERI and her friend.

104 can boast of its own Glee Club, whose membership is limited to the unharmonie three "W's" JEAN WOODBURY, CHARLIE WILKINSON, and MILDRED WENIG, who tried to soothe ALAN THAYER'S jangled nerves but only succeeded in rattling him more.

Outstanding attraetions at our football games were our peppy baton leaders MARYALICE SULLIVAN and SALLY VERNON, and a member of our cheerleading squad DONNA LEE STILES. Their presenee gave our football players an added incentive.

One of the hardest working members of our homeroom, as well as the Senior Class, was Class Treasurer, ARCHIE YEE. He never failed to attend any class funetion or activity.

104 will never forget the day JOHN YASKELL came in and announced to the world that he finally summed up enough eourage to ask a girl to the Christmas Ball. The announcement shocked everyone as John was eonsidered the quiet type.

The two WALSHES, JUDY and PAT came to bring Mr. Greehy the unhappy news that they would not be in class the week before Chrismas, as Filene's could not get along without them. It's sure they didn't miss school as much as we missed their congenial perso..alities which made them a part of our homeroom.

Nor ean we forget the third WALSH, LORNA, who interrupted the Glee Club's grand performanee at the Christmas Assembly by dropping all her musie, thus causing general confusion whieh made the occasion a little more memorable.

On a typieal Wednesday morning during the extra period, it's unlikely that you'd find FRANK ZUPPIO and SOCK XERRAS, two class geniuses, over-exerting themselves by studying.

How ean we forget the "openhouse party" given by EILEEN WILCZYNSKI for the members of the Senior Class to help ease the tension built up by Mid-Years. JOHN SULLIVAN showed his true form by being the life of the party.

MARGIE SMITH, our homeroom representative, accomplished an unbelievable feat one day as her face turned redder than her hair when she was ealled upon to give a pep talk to our class on various financial projects sponsored by our Senior Class.

Anytime a history map was due it seems that AL TAGLIERI just had to turn on his charm and PAT TARDIFF and NANCY SIEMASKO were reeruited as his hired map-makers.

The girls of 104 seemed to congregate around the desks of PHYLLIS WESOLOWSKI and CHRIS SIDERAKIS until the 8:10 bell rang and their morning gab session was brought to an abrupt halt.

Everyone seemed envious of BARBARA TRAVIS'S ability to eharm Mr. Greehy out of the afternoon sessions eaused by her Wednesday morning late slips.

When the weather started to behave, and the ground began to harden, JOHN TENNY, DENNIS WALACH, and JERRY WOLSKY beeame ardent readers of the morning paper, as they seemed to have a speeial interest in the horses at the nearest track.

We suddenly realized that graduation was nearing for now the Senior girls began practieing the commeneement songs. A violent protest was put forth by ANN WILKINS and MARY LOU SMITH who didn't seem to approve of the seleetions.

HENRY VELEZ had little competition in winning the title of "allaround sports enthusiast of 104" because of the aetive part he played in football, basketball, and during the spring term, baseball.

Guess that brings us right up-to-date. We've only the future to look forward to. Best of luek in the coming years and SEE YOU AT OUR CLASS REUNION.

BASEBALL

COACH and CAPTAIN

The Peabody High nine, coached by John Bezemes, appears to be heading for a banner season. Holding down first base for the fourth consecutive year will be Capt. Phil Pierce. The way Phil has been hitting the ball this Spring, he appears to be headed for his best year. At second base will be sophomore Leo Espindle a classy fielder, whose hitting has more than satisfied Coach Bezemes. In his fourth consecutive year at shortstop will be Henry Velez, a long ball hitter who has proved himself to be a top flight fielder. Holding down the "hot corner" will be Mike Nygren who has been hitting consistently well all spring. Rounding out the infield we have as catcher, Kenny Blake. Ken has proved himself capable of handling pitchers in fine fashion, and his booming bat has contributed much to the offensive attack. Moving to the outer pastures, we find Ronnie Enos, Tommy Harkins or George Sellios and Chuck Jones from left to right. The capability both of fensively and defensively of these men has been proved in prescason ball games. Pitching will find Eddie Callahan on the hill for his fourth year, being supported ably by such men as Mike Sestopal, Tommy Harkins, Bobby Sullivan and Denny Price. Rounding out the team will be Senior Artie Pickman who has been extremely valuable to Coach Bezemes as a handy man this Spring. With such fine prospects as these, and the addition of a new J. V. team, Peabody High baseball appears to be heading for better years. Playing their last season for P.H.S. are Capt. Phil Pierce, Henry Velez, Eddie Callahan, Ken Blake, Ronnie Enos, Chuck Jones and Artie Pickman.

BASEBALL TEAM - 1958

BASKETBALL COACHES

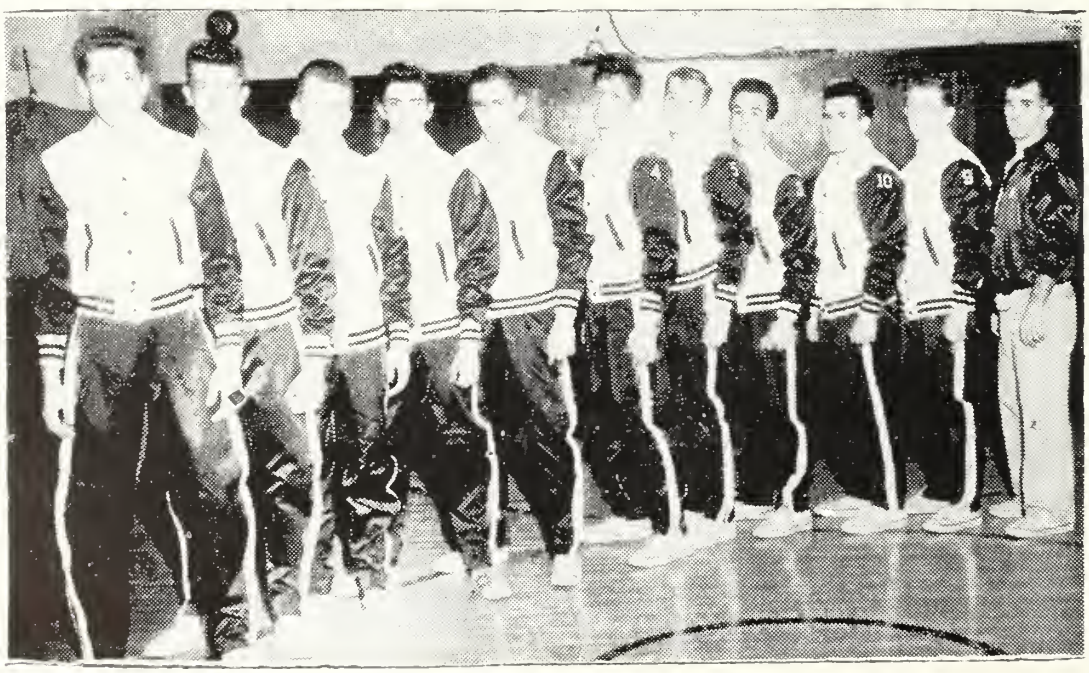
Looking forward to a tremendous season after winning their first five games, the P.H.S. hoopsters suffered a drastic blow as Co-captain "Butch" Galaris was declared over-age and ineligible. With five victories turned into defeats, the club bounced back by winning most of the remainder of their games. This highlight of the season was a 43-41 victory over Lynn English, who had been undefeated in 28 previous league games. This was their only defeat of the season in league competition. Co-captain, Eddie Callahan was outstanding this season and made many all-scholastic teams. Other seniors who made their appearances felt were Nick Maistrellis, Henry Velez, John Stavropoulos, and "Chuck" Jones.

PEABODY HIGH VARSITY HOOPMEN - 1958



FOOTBALL

Led by the hustle and determination of Co-Captains Kenny Blake and John Stavropoulos and the strategy and patience of Coach Dave Lucey, the Tanners managed to make a satisfactory showing despite being riddled by injuries and the epidemic of The Asiatic Flu. A stunning opening victory over Lowell and a 13-13 dead lock with heavily favored Salem gave the Peabody crowd plenty to cheer for.

A successful spring practice under new Coach "Gus" O'Donnell gave promise of a strong eleven in coming years. Watch for them.

PEABODY HIGH SCHOOL VARSITY - 1957

COACH and CAPTAIN

For the past several years, the P.H.S. golf team has maintained a high standing in the Essex County Golf League. This year the local links men have set their sights very high by aiming for the Essex County championship. The outstanding play of their veteran Captain Archie Yee and the consistent shooting of Billy Cohen and John Stavropoulos should enable the turf diggers to attain this goal.

GOLF TEAM - 1958

HOCKEY

COACH

Charles Carlin

For the past ten years, hockey has been Peabody High School's most successful sport. During that period P.H.S. sextet have placed themselves in playoff births 9 out of 10 times. In 1950-51 the Peabody team won the North Shore Hockey Championship. Coach Charlie Carlin has been the main reason for our hockey team's success, as he has incessantly given his valuable time, efforts, and knowledge to mold his team into a winner. Again this past winter the hockey team was successful as it finished in third place and was rewarded with a playoff birth. Seniors who helped the hockey team to another stunning year are Co-Captains Hubie Newhall and Don Jelly, Phil Pierce, Richie Kulak, Mike Shestopal, and manager Dick Medina.

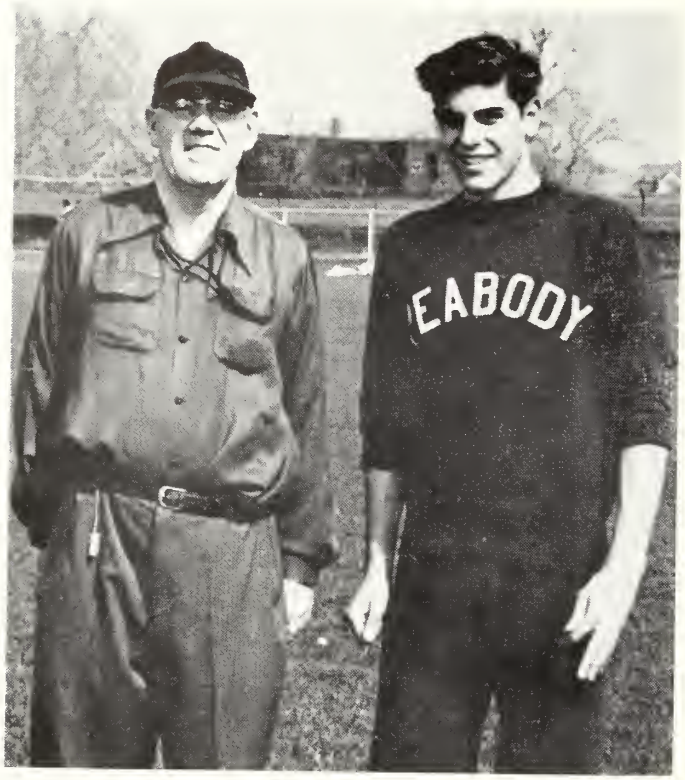
TRACK

COACH and CAPTAIN



The forgotten sport at P.H.S. should gain much recognition this year as Tom McCarthy contentedly viewed one of the largest and most talented responses in many a year. The major event of the season is the Essex County Meet which will be held at Leo Buckley Stadium this year. Our local runners led by their able Captain Frank Zuppio are hoping to make a good showing for their hometown fans. Experienced seniors who will aid Captain Zuppio are Eddie Frankel, Mike Ordman, Lance Rasmussen, and Charlie Wilkinson. The new senior road runners are Dick Gates, Charlie Papuchis, Gary Rodriques, and Alan Thayer.

Class Will

We, the members of the class of 1958 of Peabody High School, Peabody, Massachusetts, being of sound mind (?) and body, hereby bequeath our earthly possessions to the members of the Junior Class who we hope will honor and cherish them for the coming year.

To the entire Junior Class we bequeath a year of fun, fame, fortune and fortitude . . . Jack Tenney and Johnny Sullivan bequeath their places in the parking lot to Austin Merritt and Paul Murphy . . . Nicholas Maistrellis abdicates his position as scientist of 302 to Eddie Lapointe . . . Gloria Jean leaves her paintbrush to Vivian Vlasuk . . . Mary Alice Sullivan relinquishes her baton to Judy Cullen . . . Eddie Bell is leaving his "nose for news" to James Heter . . . Joyce Quinlan wills her sophisticated ways to Debby Wentworth . . . Jimmy and Francis Dineen leave Billy and Bobby Walker to confuse the teachers . . . Leonard Caires, Carl Goodridge, Robert Irwin, and Robert Smith hand down their tools to Bobby Sullivan, Tommy McLaughlin, Dave Tracchia and Johnny O'Hara . . . Joe Michaud and Robert DiLorenzo leave their curly, black locks to Bud Ouelette and Frank Trubucco . . .Brenda Hudson leaves the title of highest scoring girl on the senior basketball team to Pat Arathuzik . . . Judy Clarke would like to leave her pony tail to Linda Shoer, who she understands needs one badly . . . Johnny Madruga is giving his guitar to Varty Arakelian, and Bobby Mansfield is givinging his musical talents to "Sachmo" Emelian . . . One of the most difficult things to bequeath was the equestrian skill possessed by Susanne Gay. She finally consented to give some of it to Nancy Hopkins . . . Alan Thayer is donating some of his height to David Hemingway . . . Margie Smith has decided to turn blond so she is giving all her red hair to Pat Johnson . . . Carol Glebus in finally giving up her gallon bottle of peroxide to Judy Heenan . . . Herschel Clopper is leaving his slide rule to David Richardson. Good luck with it, Dave We couldn't figure out how to use it . . . Richard Kulak leaves his extensive vocabulary to Justin Remis . . . Pat Walsh, Judy Walsh, and Theresa Moise would like to leave their salesmanship to Judy Murphy . . . It took much persuasion but we finally convinced Billy Champagne to leave some (a very little bit) of his humorous but tactful ways of winning the girls to Ralph Sikora . . . Sally Rackauskas would appreciate it very much if Carol Mattatol would collect her late slips for her . . . Barbara Travis and Anita Puera pass on the duty of giving out free food at the lunch counter to Priscilla Blake and Carol Warren . . . Joyce Cherwek leaves her fine acting ability which was first brought out in the Observer assembly, to Carol Foster . . . Judy Hitchcock and Selma Nelson dispose of their wardrobes and give them to Sandra Breton and Marcia DeVarennes . . . Sandra O'Brien leaves her sparkling voice to Judy McAdoo . . . Carol Knowlton and Anita Daniels leave their mad adventures to Polly Pyzluka and Jeanine Lauzon . . . Kenny Hosker would like to leave his purring to Eddie Felix the cat. (meow) Donna Stiles, Julie Moore, Elaine Callor, Sandra Putnam and Dotty Comora leave their shiny new uniforms to Judy Blake. Ellen Folsom, Sue MacDougall and Nancy Wilson . . . Dana Isbell, William Ober, Janet Anderson and Claudette Archambault abandon the stage coach (W. Peabody bus) and hope that William Buttimer, Roberta Jacobs, and Jo-Anne Cole have as much fun on it as they did . . . Maryann McCarthy and Ralph Jenkins bequeath the well-worn piano of P.H.S. to Timmy O'Sullivan and Judy Golstein . . . Roger Comeau, Thomas Gagnon, Gerald Wolsky, and Michael Karamas leave their laughter ringing throughout the hallowed halls of P.H.S. . . . Bob Cody and Billy Cohen entrust their soda making abilities to Joe LaScola and Mike Colotti . . . Since we couldn't find anybody with equal skiing ability, John Kalinuk will have to take his skis with him as he departs from P.H.S. . . . School would be nothing without athletics so, "Josh" Jelly and "Hubie" Newhall leave their hockey puck to Roger Fessenden and "Yogi" Melville. Archie Yee would like to leave his golf clubs to Bob Clancy. For football John Stavropoulos and Kenny Blake bequeath their shoulder pads to George Mantsourani and William Millea. Frank Zuppio and Michael Ordman bequeath their shot-put and running shoes to Richard Jacavanco and Richie Mowbray. Phil Pierce is giving Tommy Harkins his baseball bat. "Butchie" Galaris, Ed Callahan, Henry Velez, and Chuck Jones entrust their basketball skill to Jimmy Eager, Arthur Pavlo, Peter Maistrellis, and Phil Anthony . . . John Arathuzik, John Ciman and George Dassuk are endowing their long hair to Peter Kutrubes, John Moore, and Joe Silva . . . Joyce Carroll, Margaret Donovan, Claire Farley, Lee Macintyre, and Connie Pechinsky abandon their seats outside the office to Junior girls with the strongest arches . . . Anna Bozzati, Sandra Hutchins, Francis Gnzowski, Brenda Graffam, Susan Folsom, Lorna Walsh, and Sally Vernon relinquish the opportunity of staying after school for Miss Cody to Christine Karra, Ellen Lendall, Claire O'Connor, Patricia Dziersak, Rita Harkins, and Jean Gagnon . . . Andrea Bray, Eva Broughton, Janet Caley, Georgia George, Elaine Dowdell, Pauline Apostolopoulos, Nancy Siemaski, Marylou Smith, Donna Rafferty, and Beverly Rankin submit their melodious voices to the Boston Pops with the hopes that a suitable place will be found for them . . . Jack Russell, Charlie Papuchis, Johnny Yaskell, Mildred Wenig, and Jean Woodbury, depart from P.H.S. with Mr. Cronin still dreaming of a modernized driving course . . . Toby Ann Tarlow will inherit Charlie Wilkinson's mathmatical mind . . . Mary Anne Nally leaves that frisky little Ford to anyone who dares drive it . . . Jimmy Rennick, James Roche, and William Katsapetses will let future gas attendants carry on the old traditions of over filling the gas tanks . . . Sophia Kogoreas, Ann Murray and Christine Siderakis depart from P.H.S. with hopes of finding boys tall enough for them . . . Eileen Wilczynski leaves her gum chewing to whoever can chew as fast as she.

In execution thereof, we, the undersigned, as representatives of the Senior Class, hope to carry out the wishes of our fellow classmates to the best of our ability. Signed this eighth day of June, nineteen hundred and fifty-eight. Barbara Perley, Art Pickman, Deanna Lerner

CLASS DIARY

FRESHMAN YEAR — 1954

September 8, 1954—This all-important day was to mark the beginning of our high school career. To each of us it meant an opportunity to form new friendships and further our education. Our teachers and upperclassmen were very kind to us and did all they could to make us feel at home in our new surroundings.

September 22, 1954—Final elections were held today and each of us waited anxiously for the results to be posted: The new Civics Club officers were: President, Saul Savy; Vice President, Ron Marron; Secretary, Judy Brown; Sophomore Treasurer, Petie Connolly; Freshman Treasurers, Barbara Perley and Sandralou O'Brien.

September 24, 1954—We participated in our first football rally today, and were supported in our efforts by the newly formed band. What a racket!

October 22, 1954—The Civics Club sponsored their annual Fall Dance tonight, and the auditorium was filled with happy students dancing to the music of the Rio's Orchestra.

November 8, 1954—The student body enjoyed an assembly program sponsored by the Civics Club today. Mr. William Lloyd Davis displayed great powers of ventriloquism with his dolls, Judy, Punch, Sammy and Ivan.

December 8, 1954—This morning the Civics Club sponsored the second of five school assemblies scheduled for the year. The guest artists were Maurice and Minette, who awed us with their acrobatic skills.

December 23—A much-needed vacation begins.

January 3, 1955—During the Christmas vacation our dreary old gym was transformed into a bright pleasant auditorium. It's amazing what a little paint can do!

June 8, 1955—Outing day at P.H.S. We had a wonderful time at Canobie Lake and returned weary after an unforgettable day.

June 22, 1955—With the final examinations over we have reached the completion of our first year in Peabody High School. We're looking forward to our summer vacation which we'll spend with many new friends.

SOPHOMORE YEAR — 1955-1956

September 21, 1955—The inevitable day came at last. We must return once more to our books and begin our second year in P.H.S. The dreaded infantile paralysis postponed the school's opening two weeks.

October 13, 1955—The Civics Club presented its first assembly of the year. Sandra O'Brien introduced James Titus, a Negro story teller, who ably upheld his title as one of the nation's best speakers.

October 31,—November 1, 3, 1955—Extra studying for students, extra work for teachers as the bi-mouthlies were held.

November 18, 1955—T. B. or not T. B. that was the question when the Tuberculosis Test was held. Luckily no cases were reported.

January 17, 18 19, 1956—Mid-Years already? ! Half our Sophomore year was gone.

February 3, 1956—A successful social was held by the Civics Club with Charlie Mansfield as disc jockey.

March, 1956—The Civics Club recently presented a unique assembly in the person of Charles E. King, a truly great singer and magnificent song leader. His method of teaching new songs to his audience was an unusual accomplishment. It was an excellent performance and something new in musical programs.

June 5, 1956—A day of fun and relaxation looked forward to by all the students was held today. Members of the various clubs and social organizations chatted excitedly as they waited for the buses which were to take them to their destinations.

JUNIOR YEAR — 1956-1957

September 10, 1956—Hundreds of eager students returning to friends, classes and studies, passed through the portals of P.H.S. today.

October, 1956—Elected as Junior Class officers of the year were: President, Phil Pierce; Vice President, Anita Daniels; Secretary, Judy Hitchcock; Treasurer, Archie Yee. Homeroom Representatives were: 108, Joyce Cherwek; 109, Paul Galaris; 110, Ron Marron; 203, Jean Woodbury.

October 18, 1956—The fire alarm sounded today sending every occupant of the school scurrying outdoors while fire, police and army personnel hastily entered. This activity was in response to a bomb scare, word of which was received from a crank via telephone. An hour later after braving the elements, everyone was back in class thankful nothing had materialized from the incident.

October 26, 1956—The Golden Anniversary of Vocational Training Schools was observed today and our vocational students were allowed the day off to celebrate.

November 9, 1956—The Junior class sponsored the Junior Jackpot Dance this evening. Paul "Elvis" Galaris as disc jockey did a remarkable job in satisfying the tastes of all for music.

January, 1957—Boys State—Girls State: Don Jelly, Ed Callahan and Carole Knowlton, excellent representatives of our class, were selected to attend the conference at the University of Massachusetts and Bridgewater Teachers College in June.

February 17, 1957—The Seniors sponsored an enjoyable social affair at Belknap, New Hampsshire. The skiing was great and there were no broken bones.

April 25, 26, 1957—The Dramatic Guild sponsored a three act comedy, "Curtain Going Up". Between the acts entertainment was presented by members of the Senior class.

May 10, 1957—The auditorium was beautiful and our King, Billy Champagne and Queen, Carole Knowlton reigned over a very successful Junior Prom.

May 29, 1957—The annual Memorial Day assembly was held today under the direction of Mr. Gorman.

June, 1957—A day off! And we're off to Nantasket The weather was beautiful and the boat ride just great. A good time was had by all.

June 14, 1957—With final examinations over we have reached the completion of our Junior year and look forward with anticipation to an enjoyable summer.

SENIOR YEAR — 1957-1958

September 4, 1957—At last the eventful day arrived and armed with a full supply of determination we approached P.H.S. ready for the battle of learning.

September 30, 1957—Operation T.B.: Sophomores and Seniors once again received their Tuberculin Patch Tests. The whole operation proved quite painless and students anxiously awaited the results.

September, 1957—The ballots were counted and results showed that our Senior class officers were: Roger Comeau, President; Barbara Perley, Vice President; Eva Broughton, Secretary; Archie Yee, Treasurer. Homeroom Representatives were: 101, Ed Callahan; 102, Lee Macintyre; 103, Sandralou O'Brien; and 104, Margie Smith.

October 8, 1957—This morning we enjoyed our annual Junior Achievement Assembly, with Mr. Reictor, a J.A. Representative, as guest speaker. Art Pickman offered a first hand account of the opportunities and knowledge gained in J.A.

October 11, 1957—The annual Senior Barn Dance was a tremendous success. Amidst an array of fall colors students enjoyed dancing to music supplied by one of N.E.'s finest D.J.'s Jack McDermott.

November, 1957—The annual Observer Assembly was presented today and the members of the cast deserve considerable praise for their fine presentation. Included in the cast were the Co-Editors, Judith Clarke and Joyce Cherwek; Art Editor, Bill Champagne; Advertising and Circulation Managers, Dianne Pappas and Herschel Clopper; Maryann McCarty, Don Jelly, Nick Maistrellis, Barbara Perley, and Art Pickman. Plus the now famous "Rockats" known professionally as the "Dusters."

December 3, 1957—P.H.S. students made headlines today as a mass boycott threatened in the cafeteria.

December 5—Attempted boycott brought results and immediate rehabilitation of the cafeteria was started.

December 6—The Seniors held their first formal dance of the season, tonight and King, Henry Velez and Queen, Carole Knowlton presided over the gala affair.

December 13—The library was closed today in order to allow Seniors an opportunitiy to take the Merit Scholarship Exam.

December 20—Today the Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Grace Lawless, with accompaniment played by Miss Sheehan, presented a most enjoyable program of Christmas music.

January 13, 14, 16, 1958—Tempus Fugit. The mid-years serve to remind us half our Senior year is gone.

January 24—Judy Clarke was selected to be the recipient of the Good Citizenship Award.

January 29—Students today viewed a film presented by the Mass. Safety Coucil, entitled, "Courtesy is Contagious."

February 5—After many postponements we were at last measured for our caps and gowns. Is June reallly this close?

February 26—The annual Washington-Lincoln-Peabody Assemhly was held today and four members of the Senior class participated in it, they were: Charles Wilkinson, Maryann McCarty, Mary Anne Nally, and Joanne Mosse.

March—This was one day everyone was smiling. The reason Senior class pictures were being taken today by our favorite photographer, Mr. Gainsboro.

April 10—Today was Student Exchange Day and students from Needham High came to P.H.S.. They were greeted by Ed Callahan, Lee Macintyre, and Nick Maistrellis.

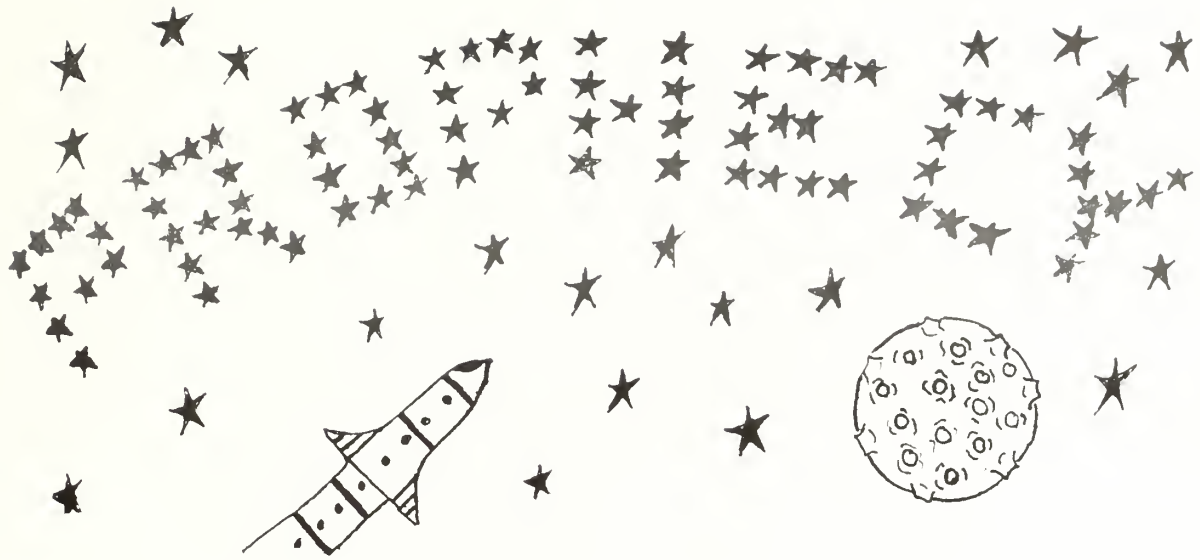
May 28—The annual Memorial Day program was presented today. This was the last assembly at which we sat as students at P.H.S.

May 29—Our four years have come to an end for today was our last day of school.

June 3—The Senior Class Banquet was held tonight with much festivity. That day in June we're all waiting for is getting nearer.

June 5—Our Senior Reception was held at Magnolia tonight and everyone greatly enjoyed himself. Music was supplied by the Serenaders and we were all sorry to see the evening come to an end.

June 8—Graduation day finally arrived and each of us took that long walk across the platform to receive that long awaited piece of white paper, our diploma.
In the past four years we've shared many wonderful memories and we hope everyone's diary of the future holds as many happy experiences.



THE CRYSTALGAZER

The graduating class of 1958 cordially invites you to their class reunion To be held at the newly constructed Peabody High School on June 27, 1978 . . . at 8:00 o'clock.

Our host for this class reunion, at the new ultra-modern fibreglass school situated on a space platform above the city, is Raa, the golden robot who, as roving reporter will relay the events of this gala evening thru his eyes.

Welcome, class of 1958. This is Raa the robot. I am here to tell you of the state of prosperity in which I find the class of 1958 as they meet here, 20 years after their graduation. Everyone seems to be here now.

I notice everyone is admiring the new school which was designed by WILLIAM OBER, a very distinguished architect. In the well equipped chemistry lab HERSCHEL CLOPPER, a chemical engineer, is discussing with CHARLIE WILKINSON, and the former MARY ALICE SULLIVAN and BILL CHAMPAGNE the latest development of fuels for the most recent space craft. Mr. Champagne designed the craft, while Herschel is working on a new solid type fuel suitable for greater propulsion, and Charlie is working with Mary Alice, who is now the wife of a college science professor, on the resultant statistical data.

Chatting merrily away as they walk through the corridors is a group of women, all married by now, among whom is the former ANDREA BRAY, now a private secretary for MR. HENRY NEWHALL, better kown to his classmates as "Hubie". Henry and DON JELLY are co-founders of "New-Jel Hockey Equipment, Inc." Andrea is talking with EVA BROUGHTON, now Mrs. JOHN SULLIVAN. "Sully" is presently employed by DiLORENZO'S Space Garage, specializing in "rocket repair." The garage also employs JOHN ARATHUZIK, RICHARD BAKULA, and CARL GOODRIDGE, who are specialists in this field.

Also with the girls are the former DOTTY COMORA, JANET CALEY, JOYCE CARROLL, SELMA NELSON, and BARBARA PERLEY. All the girls are now full time housewives, except Barbara, who operates a dance studio (in addition to her housework) along with RALPH JENKINS (when he isn't on interplanetary concert piano tours.) SANDRA PUTNAM is head dance instructor at the studio.

Continuing the tour of the school, I find, in the dazzling new home economics kitchen, the former JEAN WOODBURY and JOYCE CHERWEK, who, as former 4-H cooks can certainly appreciate the glamorous, well equipped kitchen. Joyce's electrician husband is discussing modern appliances with HENRY VELEZ, the electrician who designed the school's kitchen for his wife, CAROLE KNOWLTON, former Betty Crocker winner in her school days. Carole is a teacher in the home "Ec" and cooking departments. On Henry's staff, who worked to install and wire the room, are SOCRATES XERRAS, ROBERT SMITH and BOB F. IRWIN.

MR. ROGER COMEAU is the next class member which I [illegible]. As head purchas[illegible] for a large universal chain store, He's in town today to direct an interplanetary trade fair. Here come some of his able assistants right now—DANA ISBELL, JACK RUSSELL, and PHILIP DORRINGER. SUZANNE GAY, SALLY RACKAUSAS, JUDITH and PATRICIA WALSH, previous models for the Modeling Agency, have volunteered to demonstrate the products on display.

To get to the library, one needs only to push a button to pass through the photoelectric door. As I perform this renovation in earth travel, I. Raa, am confronted with KEN BLAKE and his wife, LEE MACINTYRE. Ken is a well known and able football coach at Oklahoma University. The couple is leafing through the 1958 edition of the Meta. (At least Ken is; Lee still hasn't broken the habit of gazing into his eyes.)

I think I'll tune in on my electronic hearing device and listen to them as they leaf through the pages.

"Say, here's JOHN KALINUK, famous Olympic skiier and BUTCH GALARIS of the Boston Celtics—who's this coming in the door? Why it's EDDIE CALLAHAN, famed hurler for the Red Sox! Say Ed, did you hear CAROL GLEBUS, now married to a pilot just had a baby girl this morning? That's why she couldn't make it tonight—speaking of babies, RICHARD KULAK'S wife just had her twelfth last week. You know Kulak's motto: 'Cheaper by the dozen.' Let's hope the royalties on his new dictionary are high; he'll need that extra income to support his family."

Eddie's reply is , "We have another author in our group, too, you know. I just met JUDY CLARKE downstairs. She wrote a book about the world's religions in collaboration with her minister husband. Say, Ken what do you have there—a Meta? Let's have a look. There's BOB BOVIO, JOHNNY BRYANT, and BILL COHEN. Those boys sure knew how to laugh. They were always the life of the party. And here's LENNIE CAIRES, JOHNNIE CIMAN, and DOM CORMIER. They're maintenance men at one of the local rocket ports."

Just now I hear a loudspeaker blare out in the voice of the program chairman, ARTHUR PICKMAN. Art is now employed as a research engineer for the U. S. Defense Department (strato-patrol section).

"Ladies and Gentlemen: MR. PAUL McNAIR is showing a special newsreel in the auditorium, featuring some members of the class of '58. I followed along rather slowly, my robot body hindering my progress. As I entered the hall, the entire class appears to be seated, anxiously awaiting the start of the film, and greeting past school chums happily.

The lights dim and the screen lights up as news commentator ED BELL appears, interviewing two famous intellectuals —DICK GATES, universal chess champ, (Dick uses flying saucers instead of rooks) and NICK MAISTRELLIS, U. S. Ambassador to Pluto.

"Tell us, Nick, how're things on Pluto?"

"Well, I tell you Ed, pretty bad. LANCE RASMUSSEN, a fellow delegate to the convention on Pluto is unsuccessfully trying to negotiate a treaty with STERLING KRACZYNSKI, but both gentlemen are so persistent and uncompromising, I fear nothing will come of it. However, CHARLIE PAPUCHIS is supporting the U. S. delegation with his splendid oratorical ability."

"Thank you, Mr. Maistrellis. And now this is your commentator Ed Bell again, bringing you a photo-flash of the 1969 Miss America contest. Miss Georgia George is the young Miss in the center, smiling as she holds her trophy. Georgia's class voted her the prettiest girl back in 1958. This was certainly a prophetic note. Flanking her are finalists JANET ANDERSON, ANNA BEZZATI, FRANCES GUZOWSKI, MARYANN McCARTY and PRISCILLA PATENAUDE, all of whom look very beautiful in their bathing suits. Now we switch our cameras to the West coast. Come in Hollywood! Here we visit the Brown Derby, World's most famous night club. On the stage we see BOB MANSFIELD and his combo. They are currently starring in Paramout's "Rocking on Planet X2." Sitting at a nearby table is DICK MEDINA, his agent making plans with famed producer THOMAS GAGNON and film editor MICHAEL ORDMAN. Co-starring in the picture is the well-known songstress SANDRA O'BRIEN. Moving to another table we see ARCHIE YEE, noted Golf Champ of the Perry Beach Country Club. Accompanying Mr. Yee is the well known film star Julie Moore. Sitting in the nearby corner is fighter ED "PUNCHY" FRANKEL and his manager MIKE KARAMAS, we wish him luck in his next fight.

So ends my newsreel and good night Mr. and Mrs. America. The lights go on once again, and the guests file out for refreshments as I follow behind into the new ultra-modern cafeteria. In the beautiful kitchen, I see JACK TENNEY, well known for his corned beef and cabbage, cooked by atomic rays.

The refreshments committee chairman is the former ANITA DANIELS, who with members of The Interplanetary Flower Club of which she is president, has volunteered to serve refreshments. However, most of the other girls, the former LORNA WALSH, SALLY VERNON, JEAN MORSE, THERESA MOISE and HELEN JERMYN, are doing most of the work as far as I can see, because Anita is too busy showing pictures of her family and soldier husband, who's just been promoted to colonel.

All eyes turned on the former MARJORIE KILEY and CLAIRE FARLEY, who in their testing, (these girls never have learned the art of seriousness) have just knocked a glass of punch from CAROL LEBLANC'S hand. I immediately called the janitor (PHIL PIERCE, who in his spare time is manager of the Boston Bruins).

At one of the tables I see a group of women chatting away as if they haven't seen each other for years. They haven't, for most of them are now teachers, instructing students on every planet. "Madame" MARY ANNE NALLY, a French teacher at Peabody High, greets "en francais," SOPHIE KOKOREAS, CAROLYN NEWHALL, BARBARA TRAVIS, (who all teach on the Moon), JOANNE MOSSE, DEANNA LERNER, and CAROL GRINDROD (who are presently employed by The Martian School System.)

At this point, the group begins to migrate to the auditorium with the loudspeaker announcement of a basketball game between the men and women, class of '58. I follow them, wishing I could play, but realizing that my robot body is no match for the athletic ability of boys such as MIKE SHESTOPAL, AL TAGLIERI, RON ENOS, KEN HOSKER, ALAN THAYER, "JOHNNIE Boy" STAVROPOULOS, JOHN QUIRK, and JIMMY RENNICK. Challenging the boys, are the following, one time, gym floor stars in girls basketball: The former—PAULINE APOSTOLOPOULOS, ELAINE CALLOR, BRENDA HUDSON, JOANNE TAGLIERI, CHRISTINE SIDERAKIS, CAROL MORICO, and ROSALIE PSZENNY.

Leading the cheers in favor of the girls is former cheerleader DONNA STILES, whose encouraging shouts are added to by the boisterous BARB EDDY, MARIE McLEAN, BRENDA GOULD, AND CLAUDETTE ARCHAMBAULT. BRENDA GRAFFAM (a secretary in her husband's business firm) is here to see her old pal Carol play, while her husband is more interested in cheering the fellows on. RICHARD (SKIPPY) SNOW, HARRY SHAMBOS, and GARY RODRIQUES can be heard shouting encouragement to the boys and doubting the delusions of ANITA PUERA. KATHLEEN McCARTHY, GERRY WOLSKY, and GEORGE DASSUK (the referees) who are much in favor of the boys.

Appearing rather uninterested, because they were catching up on the news, a group of girls were gabbing in the corner. CONNIE PECHINSKY is introducing her husband to her old friend MARGARET DONOVAN. (Margie has been showing pictures of her lovely family to everyone). MARGIE SMITH, a German teacher at Peabody High, is listening to her school time pal JUDY HITCHCOCK relate the trials and tribulations of being a secretary to the president of a plastics firm-especially when said official is her husband. SUE FOLSOM, DONNA RAFFERTY, ELAINE DOWDELL, and NANCY SIEMASKO, who before, their marriages, were office workers for the same firm, are laughing in remembrance of their working days. At the other end of the huge auditorium, admiring the indoor track, I see FRANK ZUPPIO, former track captain, along with former football squad members, JOE NOVICK, RON MARRON, JOE MICHAUD, and RUSS WARING.

A few more fellows left the spirited basketball game to take a look at the shop. Vocational students of twenty years ago, the DINEEN brothers (FRANK AND JAMES) DON CUNHA, and JOHNNIE MADRUGA listen attentively to BARRY MacDONNELL'S explanation of the nuclear motor on which the shop boys are now working.

At last, back in the banquet hall, everyone is bustling around and gathering at the tables. Murmurs of admiration and compliments of the new school are heard everywhere. As roving reporter, I, Raa, am silently noting all I see.

Over the loudspeaker, President ROGER COMEAU calls the attention of the gathering by his introduction of DIANE PAPPAS.

"I have asked Diane to read to the class all of the telegrams sent in by those who couldn't, by reason of their professions and activities, attend the evenings festivities—Diane?"

"Well, first of all, ANNE MURRAY, SHARON MATHESON, and MARYELLEN SHAIMAS are salesgirls on Mars. Obviously they couldn't make the trip on such short notice."

Leafing through the letter, Diane continues.

"Here's a letter from ANGIE PAPPAS, written for GLORIA JEAN, SANDRA HUTCHINS and herself. The girls are in a training course in business machines for the new job for Universal Weather, Inc.

"We also have a special delivery message from that red-headed bachelor, BOB CODY. It seems that while flying here, he ran out of fuel. Bob doesn't appear too concerned, however. Perhaps it's because he was accompanied by PAT TARDIFF, MARYLOU SMITH BARBARA VENEDAM and JOYCE QUINLAN. Bob is probably up to his old tricks but it won't do him any good; the girls are all married!

"BEVERLY RANKIN writes that she's busy doing illustrations for MILDRED WENIG'S new book of poetry entitled "Under The Eleven Moons of Jupiter." (The subtitle is "Through the Outer Rings of Saturn," published by DENNIS WALACH'S Publishing House.)

"We have a report from JOHN McCARTHY and CLEMENT JULIEN who are stationed with the U. S. Navy, on the—Moon (?)

"The final telegram comes from the former MARY MUSE and MARIE KOKORAS. These girls write a joint column for "Universal Press," and are out on assignment at present.

"Thank you all for listening, let's get on with the program."

The enthusiastic applause is nearly unbearable to my supersonic hearing, as was the laughter that arose when, at the beginning of the evening a delegation from West Peabody: PHYLLIS WILLINS, PHYLLIS WESOLOWSKI, BEVERLY LEBREUX and ANN WILKINS, marched in loudly advertising their place of residence with blazing blue and white letters— "Three cheers for West Peabody."

Gracious! I must have fallen asleep! Everyone's leaving. I guess my joints need to be greased again—I feel so stiff.

I see BILL KATSAPETSES is operating the lift designed by mechanical engineer JOHN YASKELL) which will take the folks back to earth. I see JOE PULEO (who manages "Interplanetary Billiards, Un-Ltd."), arguing with RICHARD WILSON, his business partner, about the date of the fire which destroyed the old high school. Puleo never could get his history straight.

PRISCILLA NOLAN and her husband are near the end of the line of people waiting to take the lift back to earth. (Priscilla owns and manages a hairdressing salon with EILEEN WILCZYNSKI).

The last to leave, besides the class officers, are JIM ROCHE and AL TERRIO, who have a unique form of transportation. They have a flying saucer).

Finally the class officers take a last look around the school, and depart, leaving only me, a lonely robot to publish my report of one of the happiest and most satisfying reunions of an extremely successful group of students.

IN APPRECIATION

The class of 1958 wishes to express its sincere gratitude to the administration and faculty of Peabody High School for their untiring efforts in assuring us the best education and training possible.

As we reach this milestone in our lives, we would like to thank the School Committee, Superintendent William A. Welch, and Assistant Superintendent J. Henry Higgns for their kind cooperation and consideration.

To our Principal Arthur J. Barry, Vice Principal Timothy J. McCarthy, and faculty, may we express our profound appreciation for their patience and perseverance in guiding us through these four years.

We extend sincere thanks to our Class Advisor, Miss Marie Coyle, our Financial Advisor, Miss Mary Luz and our Meta and Observer Advisors, Mr. Arthur V. Johnson, Mrs. Eva Haines and Miss Anna Carroll.

The staff of this Meta sincerely hopes that the fond memories of these very capable educators will inspire the Class of 1958 to attain those heights of happiness and success that these benefactors have so painstakingly designed for us.
